Thread: File Ice.net - $1820 Payout! [$7331 Overall Earnings!]

RadarX - June 20, 2011, 9:43 am
Update: This was back in the day when I had time to work as an affiliate for FileIce, and my current overall automatically gained (without recent promotion) earnings are $7331 XD.

Please don't bombard me with 1,000 PM's for my method, but here's my payment proof! :D

I know you said NO Questions, but i'm just wondering... According to you, you found-out about FileIce because of its good reviews however I've seen roughly any no content or back links for the site. As well as no reviews and also the domain was recently created, Creation Date: 2011-04-02... just makes me wonder!

RadarX - June 20, 2011, 9:58 am
I didn't find out about it BECAUSE of the good reviews lol. I don't really care if you choose to join or anything I am just sharing how I made all the money, just have a look at my payment proofs lmao.

EDIT: Btw I meant I just don't want to be spammed with a bunch of PM's, I don't mind questions.

Congrats! I wish I was able to do that D:

Haha well even so, I wouldn't risk my HF reputation with a scam site, if that's what it was. Which, I can assure anyone it is not.

Assuming you are correct, so what? It's legitimate money that I earned with my own files, no need to try to "prove" things.

And haha yes I was, I worked with share-cash for almost a year before they got under new management.

Makaveli The Don - June 20, 2011, 2:22 pm
With that money you can buy the domain fileice.com and make hundreds !

RadarX - June 20, 2011, 2:32 pm
1) Why would I want to buy FileIce.com...
2) Why would I want to make hundreds when I am already making thousands? :D

Grats on the earnings if legit.

RadarX - June 21, 2011, 9:08 pm
Hello Mr. Three Posts. :P

So far I've only gotten like two congrats.. gee thanks guys haha.

Just because I own the site doesn't mean these aren't legit earnings. The earnings depicted in the "proof" picture are all earned PERSONALLY by me. It has nothing to do with my ownership of the site, honestly. I promote my own files like everybody else lol.

Torian - June 21, 2011, 9:13 pm
Postcount means nothing on the logical scale of things, but I did offer congrats if your earnings were indeed legit. Sucks that it's surveys though, a lot harder to sell.

And that sir.. is where you are very wrong.

FileIce utilizes the best performing EPC surveys from multiple advertising companies.

By switching to CPAlead, you are getting surveys from only one company, and there is no gurantee that the surveys displayed in your widget will perform the best.

FileIce does all of that work for you with a dynamic survey rotation system, displaying ONLY the highest performing surveys based on a large database of downloads and percentages of clicks/DLS.

Switch to CPAlead, and you will probably make a LOT less.

That is if you get EVERYTHING from the download-site, which you don't. If you use a few cpa-companies, you'll get the most.

You don't get 100% of the earnings from the survey, otherwise the sites wouldn't exist.
Therefore, you are not earning as much as you could.

Actually you're wrong again, partially. You DO get 100% of SOME of the surveys. Only the surveys that pay you a lot do we take a percentage out of, but you still get at least 80%.

For example, you get a 65 cent DL, you get FULL 65 cents, we do not take any of the 65 cents.

You'll get so many more downloads with FileIce than CPAlead though, that it will easily make up for the percentage we get.

I've had my share of trying out CPAlead, and unless you know EXACTLY what you're doing, and how EPC works and design your own survey rotation system and stuff, you will make no where near as much as you can with your files on fileice. In fact, why don't you try it before speaking? Cause I have. :)

Correct, I do make a profit off of user earnings to maintain the business and pay out referral earnings, etc.

However, the earnings depicted in the picture contained in my original post are actual earnings that I earned myself, with my own files. My ownership of the site has nothing to do with the earnings in this thread. :P

Just to clear a few things up. I wasn't aware of this thread until rather recently, but I am the other owner of FileIce, and RadarX here deals with all the support and legal end of business. He also has a USER account, from which he uploads his own files, and gets paid same as everyone else at the same rates. The $1820 you see here are legitimately earned as a user.

4 months now. Want to go TV radar and let him show you his statistic graphs for past 30 days? You won't be able to fake that. Especially since theres an accompanying country breakdown statistic for each of those days, and that will take you longer to fake than to actually earn these monies. You still believe that the stats are all planted? So where did the $2k come from? Many members have already confirmed the money is legitimate over TV, and $2000 is not something you come across everyday.

Honestly, I'm a little bit disappointed with you SpK. You of all people should know how much money can be made in such a short amount of time when one hits the right ideas.

Also, time really has nothing to do with how much you can earn with a site. I had enough experience in the world of affiliate marketing to perfect the survey rotation system in the first month. RadarX was already a decent earner before he switched the links over.

Sorry, we moved to a fully dedicated server last night, and in the move, any accounts created within the last 24 hours were deleted.

Don't worry though, all earnings on the deleted accounts have been retrieved, and all we need you to do is re-submit the form we gave you when we were creating your account. (Send it to support@fileice.net and state you are s1n from HF).

FileIce is still in beta, we don't have a forgot my password function yet, that is correct. If you forget your password, email FileIce support and we'll have it changed within the hour.
Oh wait, I see your email, I'll just reply to that. :P

Can I expect stablility throughout payments?

- It's not that I don't trust you but, it's that I don't trust anyone.
No offense taken, I was just as cautious as you were when joining my first PPD.

To answer your questions:
1) This is a stable form of payment. In fact, if you get a smaller international download, such as from India, we give you 100% of the downloads revenue, and don't even take a percentage.
2) You'll just have to take my word for it, but we will never change our rates. We will always keep them the highest possible while of course being able to pay our server bills and paying referral rates. We will never lower them.
3) What do you mean by stability? I don't understand your question but if you are questioning if we scam, we do not. We pay out every month, and have already paid out a few months of earnings. In fact, depending how much you earn during the month, it is very likely that you will get an early payment, free of additional early fees, complimentary of the FileIce administration.

Excuse me? After speaking to someone who you THINK is associated with FileIce?

Don't you dare come on this thread accusing us of being an illegitimate, scamming company, just because of a HUNCH you have.

FileIce LLC is a legitimate, legal, registered business. We have business documents to prove our authenticity.

I don't mind if you wait a few months to join, but DON'T come on my thread accusing FileIce of being a scam site without proof of an actual scam.

Thanks. ?
Also, bckc, I would like to know who you spoke to claiming to be associated with FileIce in such a manner that would convince you we're a scam.

I was posting a hunch I have, I never said you were a scamming company, I happen to know that you HAVE payed out so far.

I spoke to Project Sinx. I guessed that he was associated with you as he continually messaged me on why I should convert from $harecash, which is quite annoying to be honest, it's not like I'v not heard of the site, its all over this section at the moment.

Sorry If you misunderstood, I'm not saying FileIce is currently scamming nor am I saying that they definitely will scam, I just think that when something sounds too good to be true it usually is, and FileIce does sound too good to be true.

P.S Don't tell me not to post if I have a hunch, I speak my mind. If you saw someone ask the OP to post a virus scan on a programming thread because it looked fishy would you tell them not to post over a hunch?
Cheers
~Bckc

I can honestly say I have never in my life heard the name "Project Sinx". I'm not even sure if he's a member with us, lol.

When something sounds too good to be true, sometimes, it is true. Posting negative hunches on our thread isn't necessary and only makes us look bad.

Currently, we offer monthly payouts on a Net15 basis, if you know what that is.

The minimum required balance to request a payout is $50.

Thanks for the vouch. And, copland, you obviously know nothing about the world of business. The AGE of a business does not prove anything about its validity. It only means its an OLD business.

Yes, FileIce is a relatively new business, but why would we waste over $1,000 creating a LLC out of FileIce if we were going to scam with it?

Sorry, I don't offer personal training tips via PM. They'd be biased by the fact that I know everyone's methods on File Ice. There's a great tutorials section with loads of HQ tutorials though, that you can look through. ;)

Since you're the owner, can you tell us how much it was the biggest payout you've ever made to a user? Just curious to see the potential.

RadarX - October 25, 2011, 3:48 pm
Technically, the potential is unlimited. I don't have a record anywhere of "the highest payout", but I do remember making one around $3,000. It was to "-luke-", of this forum. My IRL best friend. :3

I think joining File-Ice will be one of the best decisions you ever make in your PPD career. Although I do own the site, the earnings in this thread are my personal earnings and have nothing to do with my ownership. I have had experience with other PPD's, and my honest opinion is that I would never use any other. I get the best earnings with File-Ice and intend to keep it that way for everyone. :D

Nah, I've always owned File-Ice, but I was writing this post from the perspective as an earner there. When I started File-Ice, I didn't have much work to do with support and stuff because we didn't have very many members, so I promoted my own files to make money. The $1800 is the money that i made myself.
