Let me know what you guys think! This is my most complete theme to date (Thanks green for the base design). If you want to buy it, please contact Green. :)

iRtehLeet™ - October 8, 2011, 5:46 pm

Wow does that theme ever look sexy. I'm sure just adding this GUI to your program would increase sales!

I'm pretty sure, AeonHack will awnser this better, but basicly what this theme does is give ur application a theme pretty self explanatory

When you create a .Net application you are limited to the default controls they give you - such as the TextBox, Button, etc. These are additional controls you can add to your project which are themed as you see in the screenshot. It just makes your program look much nicer to help increase sales.

Theme is great. Would like to see a few others controls added to complete the theme. Tabs, Tree/Listview, Combo/Listbox, NumericUpdown, and scrollbars (Horizontal, Vertical, Both) in the multi-line textbox. Just a suggestion. Keep up the good work :)

Wise - November 9, 2011, 11:23 am
I asked Aeon to add TextAlgin to the controls for almost a month now. He still hasn't responded.

Dan - February 9, 2012, 6:41 pm
Why on earth would I lie about PMing you?

I tried buying it months ago... Aeon told me to message you, I messaged you a few times and told Aeon if I could pay him and got no response.

For whatever reason you must not received my PM but Aeon did, as he told me you were doing payments or some shit. Can't remember and don't have the PM's anymore either. No biggy anyway.

But if you do custom themes, I'll be interested in a couple of weeks.
