And marble? Is your island just off the coast of Albania with that taste (in which case, you aren't as powerful as you think my man, because you certainly aren't part of the family I'm thinking of)?
It looks like a hint of tacky and Indian, amiriyt?It's in north america. Don't worry mate.

Webmasters - November 26, 2011, 5:28 pm
I personally don't like it. Looks like a bad design but eh I guess that's why I can't buy it :P

Lol. Your bragging about something that your parents own

Also that doesn't look like a very big house. How many square feet is it?

%1 Granite,%2 stainless steel, %5 mahogany, %92 Marble/structure stones.

Don't know the sq ft.

That's really nothing to brag about..

Dude. In your picture, have your hackforums profile open on a computer or something.
Or hold up a piece of paper that says Programade on it.
Make some sort of watermark.

If that's true, hes gonna get alot more hate then he expects... Like you know Seananners stole a video, and someone found out it wasn't his, and he had like 1000-2000 Rep I think, and they turned into red :)

And, if it's you'res then it shouldn't be hard to take some IRL pictures? Get moving, or it's fake.

Tizen - December 6, 2011, 10:36 am
Nice house, don't listen to trolls, they are just jeleous that they aren't as lucky as you, nice work.
