Looks good, hope he gets a punishment. Remember don't do a trade with someone that doesn't have 5+ rep from trusted members.

Yes, it's just ridiculous. Now after seeing the report he's "suddenly" responding again.

And expects me to explain through TV without sending money firstly.

I hope he gets the punishment he deserves.

Lately nothing gets done about Scam Reports. Valid one though and sorry on your loss.

Here's a previous scamreport on the guy. Always search before doing deals with anyone here.

And please put your images in spoiler.
