Thread: Fix Netflix and Hulu section

0cool - June 13, 2013, 2:58 pm
We really need to fix that section up... Almost everything posted there are asking for accounts. I thought the section was to talk about netflix and hulu movies/tv shows? Maybe we could have a sub forum that says "Requests" where they can request accounts there?

It's still to talk about "Netflix and Hulu movies, issues, accounts, and discounts".

If you want to talk about "netflix and hulu movies/tv shows" then just make a thread and someone may post in it. :)

Even though there's a bunch of request's for accounts its not at a rate where your thread wont be seen. :)

Or people can quit being lazy and go to the freebies and giveaway section? It's annoying I know that how you feel.

It does need to be cleaned up a little bit!

This is at least the third or fourth thread that I can remember about this. I don't think anything is going to happen anytime soon.

Is there any reason why? It doesn't seem hard to create a sub section in the netflix + hulu section.

No idea why honestly. I assume that staff and admins just don't think it's a big deal.

Basically I think it is used as a container for all the crap. If Omniscient would create a sub-forum it would encourage the activity, if he removed the section it would move elsewhere and make other sections much worse. I believe that is why the section is left as is. Just report the threads in the section and staff will deal with them.

There should be a section named Account Request in it so we can keep the regular section clean.

Staff have told members not to report the threads and leave it be. :)

Most of the Hulu+ and Netflix accounts are obtained illegally. I'm not even sure why they're allowed to be given away. A lot of it involves credit card fraud.

I agree,

They did this with the Xbox section for 48 hour requests.

I just want to point out that none of my accounts are obtained in anyway illegally.

Anyway, this has been suggested by Webdev77 and myself previously and nothing has happened. Both gave good feedback, but nothing will happen yet.
