We're ready and open to boost people.

Just because it's preseason doesn't mean anything! You can still boost your MMR so you could be placed in a higher division when you do your provisionals in Season 4

Mööop… You're not the cheapest anymore ;)
Nevertheless, nice thread. Wish you lots of success for your future customers!

With Season 4 coming up in about a month, it would be wise for you to get your MMR up. Imagine winning 10 placements with an already high MMR, you would be placed in Plat, or maybe even Diamond!

Contact me via PM or contact the Skype on the thread if you're interested.

How much would it cost to play my Placement games when the reset happens? I'm currently Silver

II with about 300 ranked games. 125 wins, 142 losses.

It should cost you about $50, maybe even a bit less.

Okay quick question, I was in Bronze IV in S3. I won 2 and lost 12 I believe (I sucked when I played ranked) If you won 8/10 or more of my placements what division would I go in and what would the cost be? Thanks :)

The MMR reset is really messed up so I can't really tell you, but the cost would be $50.

If you really want you could make a deal on Skype to pay a little extra to make sure you get boosted to silver 5 if thats what you want

As of now we're doing EUW or NA placements for $45!

Order now to avoid long queue times to get your job done ASAP.
