After being here a while you can normally spot a multi easily. His activity did catch my eye but I'm not going to randomly call someone out.

Oh damn. yeah lucky you.

Maybe a good tip is to see if they can wait till another time. So they cant scam multiple people. If they do, then you would see it on DD before you deal.

See this all the time. Was obviously a multi from the start which is why I never dealt with him.
