How did you obtain this exactly? Can you provide a receipt you bought this yourself?

I was given to pay of a debt he owed to me, I knew the guy in real life, and I have the original box's for everything, besides the uhm monitor and the tower, the size of the box's I didnt wanna waste to much storage.

I have barely used it, and I figured I would use it more, but I tend to move more and more away from PC gaming.

Would you be able to sell the monitor standalone? If so, how much?
And details about shipping please

Where are you located? Perhaps arrange for IRL pickup?

Would you sell the monitor seperately, and for how much?

I mean I woudnt be able to part anything inside the "computer"
since its already built and I rather not take it apart.
