Where's the like button? Good job, but I would like to see other colors than cyan and pink CLICHE as fock kikiKANNIBAL - January 31, 2011, 3:40 am

It was different haha, I edited the colors at the end with some different color adjustments.

mehim - January 31, 2011, 4:36 am what was it before ill love to seen blue and orange one so you didnt use any brushes or textures

VirtualMechanix - January 31, 2011, 4:54 am

If you didn't use brushes, is 10/10. But if you used it's 8/10!

Nice work kiki, just not fond of the one stroke below center piece.

Soldier of Courage - January 31, 2011, 6:39 am looks great man. If actually done without brushes it's phenomenal.

GuJJu - January 31, 2011, 6:44 am

Must say, really nice work done.

ODB - January 31, 2011, 10:55 am

Great piece, good job! I really like this a lot kikiKANNIBAL - January 31, 2011, 12:14 pm

I'm not novice, I don't use brushes

By brushing, i mean soft brushing for lighting, this is all from scratch, all smudge and pentool

Rhythm - January 31, 2011, 12:20 pm

I'm dying to learn this effect, you must teach me ^.^

Amazing work!

Intergalactik - January 31, 2011, 12:21 pm

The pentooling+detail is far too nice, and great choice of colours. keepitup kiki?

thanks guyss

:D will do

my first piece with this style, gonna expand on it

Raain - January 31, 2011, 12:58 pm

Damn, i really need someone to teach me stuff like this :x
