Why do you deserve the award: I have been here since 2009 and have had so much fun here at hackforums all these years. I know there's members giving out thousands of dollars now at Hackforums but i have also contributed alot of stuff here at Hackforums all these years. As a person i hate selling stuff so when i do not know what to do i just give it away for free and i enjoy it since there is alot of members who deserves it here at Hackforums. I have been here since 2009 and have earned total $130. I do not care , i just think sharing is better and i don't have money to share since i would do it or even giving away awards just like you and i appreciate it. I just think i deserve that award that i have been through all these wonderful days at Hackforums since i would never afford that award. And that is the atleast one thing i could har gotten by somebody for all these years.

Thanks alot for hosting this contest Ty.

Why do you deserve the award:

I think that I deserve the award, because that I am a high quality member and a caring member with high quality posts also, and generally just high quality all in all. I am doing giveaways when I can / have time, to keep contributing and give something back to the community. I've been here in a couple of years, and I've been through alot, nothing negative tho. I am a nice person, always happy to help members on HackForums. If they need some help, they either PM me, or ask trough Skype for my help. Of course I am helping as much as I can and doing my best to help. I am going to keep the high quality posts and the help on top, to keep the happy smiles on people on here. I've been helping and contributing all my time here, since I've created this account. Also as you see I reached 10k posts, so I've been trying to keep being active here. The award will help me, as I've never gotten an award from a contest. A day back in 2012 I got repfucked sadly. My 600 reputation fell down to -4. I had a break there, was inactive for some weeks and then returned after. I am now still active and I will not stop as HackForums is my drug. My point is that nothing can stop me from doing what I do. The award will simply make me happy, so I atleast know that some members actually appreciates me as a positive member. I am spending alot of time on HackForums and I'm putting much effort on the good things I am doing.

I am making tutorials for the newbeginners in the hacking section also (http://www.youtube.com/thepowerfulmn my Youtube channel, the channel I upload them on.). I'm still trying to make some videos, depends on if I'm busy or not. I will be making more for sure, no doubt.

I am not using Paypal and LR that much at the moment. Only when I'm thinking on making some contests for the community, or if I gotta buy something important for myself once. So I don't really thought about buying it myself. I don't got the money also. I am most likely thinking on the members on the forum, before myself & using most of my time on things that I can give away and things that can help the community.

Why do you deserve the award: Why wouldn't I deserve it? I've been an active member of the community and I help people. Now, if you look at my post activity, you might say that I spam the Lounge which is a useless section. I never spam, if I did I'd have gotten banned, and people actually come to the Lounge to ask for help about lots of things they can't ask for in other sections. That's it. I don't honestly think I'm the most deserving, but I sure do hope I'm the luckiest of all.

Why do you deserve the award:So, I actually contributed quite a lot to this forum, from spotify accounts, to special codes, to personal advice. You can see that in my threads, and also in my reputation. I've been here for a quite long time now, and I really want an award, and especially this award, as it looks pretty cool imo. Also, the group seems really awesome! I'll maybe submit an application in a few fays!

Why do you deserve the award: 1) I have recently been active alot on the forum's now that I previously have, I love to learn about what there is in hackforums.
2) Hackforum's isn't just about hacking, It's more of a socialising website where you can meet other's share hobbies and give advice and help out.
3) I have no scam report's nor have I engaged in any sort of blackhat activity.
4) I aim to learn more than what I previously came with when I first signed up.
5) I am alway's willing to help member's to the best I can.
6) I am currently starting to get into BitCoin and Litecoin.
7) Having this award would make my day! look's pretty cool!
8) I have donated to Hackforum's and I will continue to do so in near future.

Good luck to everybody. This is a fantastic giveaway! I hope somebody who really deserve's this award gain's it.
