Anyone watches this on A&E? I find myself watching it a lot lately due to nothing good on TV, mostly on the weekends.

I think the weekends is the only time the show actually airs live anyway, but yeah it's a very good show

Yes, I find the weed related ones very entertaining because it's a joke to arrest someone for pot.

I watch Live PD. I don't think I have ever seen a live airing of this show though, but it appears as though they only air live episodes during the weekend so that is probably why.

Lol yeah. Was watching this the other day. Someone broke into a home and stole a watermelon and a lawn mower battery. I know being a cop is mentally/physically/emotionally demanding and draining but I'm sure there's a lot of funny stories too.

Yeah, I believe the live episodes happen on Friday/Saturday night, I remember watching like a 4 hour long live episode one Saturday night. Some of the things that happen on this show is crazy lol. People go on high speed chases, run away, risk getting shot/tazed because of no license/suspend license or weed lol.
