Thread: Scammed $33 by Buddy Belaire UID 151514

Etho - April 11, 2014, 1:16 pm

On March 30, 2014 I purchased the eBook "Limitless" because there was a full refund option so I knew I had nothing to lose.

Later that day I asked for a refund because I had purchased a public method. I even included the link to the free ebook that contained a very similar method. He did not reply until I posted on his thread, he said it would take a day for him to refund me but he still did not send the refund. Everything else is pretty clear from the messages that he sent me, all of them are posted below. He is ignoring me now, if this does not get resolved by Sunday, April 13 I will start a chargeback on Paypal.

eBook I purchased: https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=4135546

I personally bought his product and like it, we have all of our own opinions but I agree with this scam report. He replies to all if not most of the good comments saying he thank you for buying etc. But, it will go like this.

POSTS:
Love the product mad x money
love the product love it.
i would like a refund please add me or pm me
ok never got my pm
love the product.

He will quote and reply to all of the + comments just not bad ones. Multiple people complain about this. Hope this goes in your favor.

I am also in the same boat, I want a refund. EVERY SINGLE PM has been ignored. I even started just by asking for support, something HE PROMISED. Legit scam report for a legit scammer.

This is so sad "His hit eBook", how is something a hit when half the people are asking for a refund?

I completely agree, he can't just ignore these scam reports.
He should reply here as well: https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=4131110

He wasn't planning on refunding anyone from the beginning, it was his trick to get more sales.

This really sucks, also something else he is doing is claiming that he has a %50 sale just for one day. But he has that "one day sale" everyday.

I refund anyone who gives the method a real shot and can provide sufficient evidence of doing so, I've helped countless members make money online the difference between you and them are; you're simply just to lazy to give it a shot. I do NOT tolerate immature kids spending their dad's money, wasting my good time, just so they can give up on the first day. It's ridiculous.

I call bullshit. I gave the method more then enough time.

I guess that you should change the title of your thread because you just said that you do not provide "100% REFUND NO QUESTIONS ASKED".

Why would you tell me that I would receive a refund when you had no intention of actually refunding me. You should have said this when I first asked for a refund.

This has nothing to do with me not trying the method, this is about you lying to your customers by promising them a refund option.

Also how did I waste "your good time"? You never even bothered to reply after the first couple messages.

Please give me a refund or I will start and win the Paypal chargeback.

Nice to see this ... I just purchased his eBook , and still waiting for the password ...

edit: got it :)

vans1997 - April 15, 2014, 2:40 pm

What is the eBook about?

I am not sure if i should buy it.

Xysting - April 16, 2014, 10:07 am

He's reselling a public method, my friend bought it and he thinks it's great, but I found it on multiple forums before.

If you want to know just buy it, don't message me because you want it leaked. Not saying that you did but like 10 people tried to get me to leak it, I won't.

I mean, you can find the same thing in other words on other forums. It's a genuine waste of $33.

Personnaly I bought his E-book and already earned 700$ with this method, I am very impressed by this method.
I don't think he is a scammer.
You can make good money with this method with no much effort.

This is not about the method, it's about him lying to his customers by promising refunds that he never had the intention to give.

He offered a btc refund. You could've exchanged that into like $36 paypal.

Don't know why you are posting on a thread this old. But I'll still reply to what you said, he also offered a Paypal on his thread that was not fulfilled. What makes you think that he would even give me the BTC? He's a scammer and it's just sad that he continues to pull this off.
