Thread: [\[Paying!\] Keylogging Nub! \[Guide!\]](#)

ix3oh3xi - February 2, 2011, 8:37 pm

Looking For A Little Help! Iv been around here for months, have learned many things along the way but I'm still a dummy when it comes to this is forsure!

My request is i'm looking for a mentor to help walk through making a keylogger

My main goal is to use it on Runescape accounts, Spreading it wont be the problem, my thing im looking for is finding the best one to use (most undetectable, easiest to use for this type of game, most user friendly, etc.) and some help setting it up, need it to send user and passwords to my email, if it can send pictures, chats and stuff that would be cool like the Ardamax one does but its not required, main thing i'm looking for is just users and passes

if you want to leave your email on here and I can add you on msn to talk or you can PM me your email, or just pm me in general to discuss it will be fine, or maybe even direct me to a good guide, just let me know, thanks for your help HF!

Great Job Troll, Didnt realize it was that big of a deal to you for me to ask for some help

Nitros - February 3, 2011, 2:54 am

Troll ? I think not, I am active in this section, and these threads are posted every week if not everyday.

So don't go calling me a troll when you have been a member for 7/8 months and still don't even know how to search.

Are you looking for a paid keylogger or a free one?

joshboii1992 - February 3, 2011, 6:00 am check the read about keylogging in my sig

ix3oh3xi - February 3, 2011, 4:21 pm

I dont mind paying for one, as long as its a good one, not looking to spend hundreds by any means, but just looking for the best one for this type of stuff with a little help

OMFG just chill, im just asking for a little personal opinion on the Best Keylogger to use and how to use it, if you dont kno are dont care to help, just dont post, its not hurting you in anyway, so just go flame somewhere else

xShadow125 - February 6, 2011, 3:46 pm

If you don't have experience yet, I recommend you to begin with free keyloggers first, and when you get the hang of it, start paying for FUD's

Actually this thread is hurting us people that are active in the keylogger section. Because there are loads of these threads and the answer can be found without making another.
