Thread: Calling people out in a post/thread?

Would that be allowed. If I wanted to call somebody out for something that I disagree with or maybe even if they have terrorist mentality would that be acceptable on these forums? Somewhere in General Discussions, maybe the lounge or SRPP.

I wouldn't. It would be considered flaming IMO. Just play it cool.

What if somebody said, "I think all Atheists should be beheaded, deported, in jail or in labour camps", and I made a thread quoting him/her and saying "Shame on you"?

You are not allowed to Flame, Threat, or Harass other members. If you have a problem with another user then just put them on your ignore list.
