Thread: Recommend me a show?

Hey guys. So I've been trying to find a show similar to Zankyou no Terror that I haven't seen already. (Death Note was the top recommended on MAL if anyone's interested.) If this can help narrow down the possibilities even further, I really enjoy shows that are of a more serious-ish tone. Kind of how Zankyou was. There wasn't very much fanservice and it seemed to just execute the plot flawlessly. I'm not necessarily looking for a psychological, although I wouldn't be against it. Mainly looking for a thriller. If you need to see my anime list, click my signature. It'll take you to my HB profile to see what I've completed. Thanks guys. ^-^

Can't check your list right now, but have you watched Higashi no Eden? Has quite a few similarities between the two.
