User made a thread regarding buy Old School gold.

https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=4824772

I went first, as he has NO negative rep and a perfect trust scan...

Of course he goes on a scamming spree right when this happends.

Second time being scammed for 07 Gold.

He also just scammed another person.

After I gave him the gold, he sad "Sent".

Never even gave him my PayPal Address.

Just happened to me for 40m.

Dude is probably gonna pull some "I was hacked so sorry :////" bullshit.

No surprise, just another HF cunt.

~Para make another thread for your dispute as well.

Pretty sad he had to do this.

Legit scam report. Good luck getting your money back OP.

SprayPaint - May 17, 2015, 3:12 pm
Well then, after reading the response above me and OP reply I have come to the conclusion that this is a legit scam report.

@~Para I suggest creating a seperate scam report to just help get the word out that he is scamming, so people will stop dealing with him.

Also, I would say that I would like to see his response to this before I jump to any conclusions, but the fact that he said sent and you didn't even give him your PP it's quite obvious that he is going on a scamming spree.

I'm going to make a community alert about this right now, I would hate to see another user get scammed by this member.

I would like to say that you will get your money but it's highly unlikely considering the fact he seems to be on a scamming spree, but don't completely eliminate the chance, he may start to feel bad and pay what he owes.

I'm still wondering why he had to ruin that perfect rep.

He'll probably come back.

If anyone needs information on this user, I can put something together for you.
Unless it's just a compromised account and not original user.
