Thread: new donation from Red Lions group to HF 1200$

nokia2mon2 - June 15, 2015, 11:13 am will it was a very long time i was away from the HF. but its always on my heart i donated 1200 $ on the name of my group to HF .

we try our best to support HF as best as we can.

why i announced that?
1- Its in the name of the Red Lions group.. In order to explain a group's activities and effectiveness. Yeye

2- To encourage others to act the same thing.

3- omni is the great boss i ever see in all the forums, he deserve from us all to support his great work.

4- Because i love the scene Tongue

5- i missed the heaters :) and i need a new advice about Charity and the way that i must spend my money etc etc Yeye :D ?

cheers HF

I'm not disputing that he's rich... But is he really 'rich'? I mean sure it's cool you can donate $1200 to a website, but at the same time lots of other people that are not rich are donating that much to a charity or buying a bike. The average salary in the UK is £25,000~ which is what, $45,000 or a little less? If you were dedicated to this website, I'm sure you wouldn't miss $10,000 each year.

But from what I've read, he was born into wealth so I don't see why everyone is stating that this guy is a hero and "Oh my god thank you so much for your hard earned cash going towards an already rich forum owner!". It's rich people donating to rich people, the upkeep on HF is probably paid off in a day or two without people donating 1k.

But whatever, this belongs in bragging so fuck off.

Edit: Also, considering most of the people saying this guy is amazing are in high school/college, you will soon work out how little money he has actually donated. I'm also in college, but I'm seeing it how it is. Maybe I read more than you guys or something I dunno.

It's a forum for discussions. I'm trying to start a discussion... Sorry I forgot this forum is full of middle school-leaver's that can't have a simple conversation or debate. I guess y'all only care about the numbers on your profile. "OH MY GOD GUYS LOOK!!! I got 3k posts, oh wait, most of them are one sentence replies to a post.

This is what pisses me off about this forum, there are so many users that just post without any thought about what they are typing. Forums were made for discussions, yet it's full of people that decide to just sit there and get their count post up whilst not actually contributing to a discussion.

In the early days of HF it was a good thing that you did by donating to Help with the costs but now there is no need to donate anything, Omni is making more than enough cash to keep the place running you would be better donating your cash to say a dogs home or to a cause that needs it.

In a way he is acting like he is of royal value or something. 'Hey guys look at me, right so I've donated this much and you must now all know every time I do.'

This is clear attention seeking in my opinion, why couldn't he have just donated and not told anyone? It's simply bragging in a way.

I get your point, and it makes sense, but donating here just shows your appreciation for the site.

Dont get me wrong in the early days when I had cash myself I donated quite a bit but now I just dont think there is no need.

I could be wrong I honestly dont know how much the running costs are of running a forum this size but with all the ads and stickys and upgrades each day it adds up to a fair amount.

I'm almost adamant rule #5 "5. This isn't 4chan so don't treat it as such." is never applied to this bloody forum.

Sorry but you know nothing about me. Also, so what if he has donated more money than I have ever owned/my family has ever owned, I was trying to discuss something of interest to me. You're way too immature for me to have a conversation with you though.

Heck, this is why I'm on reddit so much more than this website, because it's not always full of fucktards like yourself and others.

Don't say that. We argued a lot. You're pretty much Shockley but three months ago. I don't like you, I don't like how you treat others, I don't like your immaturity. I respect your opinions, but I disagree with them a lot. But then you get all defensive and all butthurt when I do disagree with your opinion. Sorry, but a conversation works when both people don't cry when someone questions another persons opinions. You need to be able to see the world and topics at different angles. You need to see the alternative sides of things.

Don't say we go back ever again please, you're a disgrace to the human race on the Internet. I don't know shit about your in real life so I won't comment. #ExposedPieceOfShit.

There's certainly no reason to post a thread each time, solid agreement on that. I think my only quarrel with your logic is.. who cares? lol.

However big or small the amount, however self-righteous the thread makes him feel, however the donation is represented; I see less merit in disputing his reasoning for making a thread than actually making the thread, is what I'm trying to say I guess. I wouldn't make a thread about it each time (Not that I would likely donate that much to anything ever) but I say if he wants to, cool. Worth the support it brings in. Why would anyone complain?
