Thread: Crazy Nascar crash

Not a big fan of Nascar but I happened to be watching it last night and wow, I saw the gnarliest crash that I have seen in a very long time.. The car was literally ripped in half Miracles do happen because the man (Austin Dillon) walked away.

Yea that was a very scary moment for all involved especially Austin Dillion, I think he is very lucky to come out of such a wreck without more injuries. It was a great race overall last night just hated to see that on the last lap!

I saw this today. It looks very scary. I always don't like this kind of accident. I hope that all of competitors are alright.

I feel like sometimes these crashes are almost a part of nascar almost like fights are a part of hockey but not as often. Still hope everyone is alright though cause this one was quite gnarly.

That ain't shit (srs) and no trolling. General racing series are like 70% safety nowadays...they simply don't make em like they used too. took a real alpha man to drive in Group B, BTCC with the RS500s, F1 till 1994, Indycar, the mighty Group 5, Group C(Group 6), Older Nascar was tough too, name it, any series you want, they are fkin easier now
