I think there would be more of a problem with there NOT being "white suntan lotion" all over them.

Already have that OST downloaded, but damn is that one sexual OST. So far its my second favorite OST of all time.

By far the BEST OST that has ever been put together.

I don't know about THE BEST, but it's definitely awesome.. and different too!

I love the blends of House music, and it even has a dubstep track, lol.

It's just epic. I put it in my mixes all the time on #HFAnime

I know it's been 8 years, but if some hero is out there and happens to have a working link with the album, i'll be so grateful if they post it. Thank you. :(
