use wireshark when you're in a call, I'm sure there are many tutorials

Well I mean, there are a lot of 12 year old kids on these forums. It's hard to tell the difference sometimes.

Skype ID is unresolvable. For me atleast.

Balding - December 23, 2015, 6:54 pm
Skype resolvers are slowly becoming a thing of the past. It's almost impossible to resolve new skypes due to the new skype update. Unless they're in a database it cannot be done.

You cannot resolve Skypes anymore since Microsoft run the connections through there servers. Unless it's in the resolvers database you wouldn't get the ip. You can't sniff ips as well.

Your best bet is try and make him click a ip logger.

WTF....HE MUST BE ONLINE TO RESOLVE IT ?

You can't resolve an ID if it's not logged.....?

Done - if you want the results pm.

Never mind - you got it by the looks of things.
