Guys Listen!!

This is totally not a virus. And U²D never meant to infect anyone. He is a good coder and programmer, and we should all thank him.

Now this is the most important part.

Most of you might think its strange that you have strange processes running in your background appearing and disappearing. So here is how to solve it!

The process "vbc.exe" and "conhost.exe" are gonna have to go after you follow my instructions

First

Go to Your Start Menu and Click On Run

Now type "regedit" and hit enter

Now go to this path

"Computer\HKEY_CURRENT_USER\Software\Microsoft\Windows\CurrentVersion\Run" (This is your start up registry)

Now delete the unnecessary start ups (Most probably vbc.exe and your "server" name)

After that is done, restart your computer and check the results.

Everything will be fine after you delete the unknown key in your registry key.

Don't worry, your computer is not infected at all, in fact, you only get this after you tested your server yourself.

Hope this helps.

Peace ;D

This can not be serious. You offer FUD Crypt iStealer for 2$ in this thread and tell us you are disappointed with this FREE crypter??? Buy the Private versin from U²D and I think you have a runtime FUD RAT or iStealer.

Chrzz - February 9, 2011, 9:38 am

When victims open the crypted server from this crypter, a cmd window opens called vbc.exe. Once they close this, my victim is also gone and does not come back. The servers boot functions and spread throughout the victims computer also stops working, as the spreaded files do not work to re-infect the victim.

In other words: this crypter is FUD, but very hard to keep victims with it.

If you think you're infected, then you can follow my post tutorial

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=1045641&pid=9708293#pid9708293>

Or

If vbc.exe is opening up in a command prompt after you crypted your server, you must add an injection feature in your server (for example: explorer.exe) in order to make it work.

Hope this helps.

I would like to point out that every hint anyone gives to figuring out an encrypted password is one step towards having a crypted file detected by anti virus. The more intelligent the user base the longer it will stay a good encryption.

Doesn't work with Spy-net, tried EOF, then tried without EOF. Doesn't show error.. Just leaves a twain.dll that stays in the directory and I get no connection from the victim. What a headache.. searches for a different crypter errorcalls - February 10, 2011, 9:15 pm

One thing i realized that is, when the person runs the crypted file, it doesnt appear on the list until they restart their computer, and i believe you dont need to setup install server option, because the crypter seems to do it for you, where it just add to startup.

One thing, when you crypt the file and naming it, you should name smthing like official name, because when they add on to startup they have the name of your crypted file.

Therefore this crypter works, only if the person comp restart when they run the file. Btw this isnt fully F.U.D where Kaspersky detects as pdm, trojan smthing but shows nothing in scan, just runtime problem.

One Question: can the crypted file still work without java?

immortalz - February 10, 2011, 10:33 pm

Does the USB-SPREADER also works with blackshades his rat ?
If so what are the proper setting to choose ?
Anyway thanks a lot for this great working crypter !

Stockholm - February 11, 2011, 4:00 am

Everytime I crypt any servers with this crypter & trying to test it out , its just crashing... and says continue or Exit.. So basicly its not working at all & fud cuse its not a crypter..

what Rat are you using or program?

~ Inf3cti0us

Spy-Net 2.6, I may have also tried DarkComet (Can't remember, short term memory lol)
I mean sure, it supposedly successfully crypts and scans FUD, and can execute it on myself without any error popping up.
But obviously something is corrupting, because I executed it on 20 of my victims with no success.
I'm not an idiot either, it isn't a port..etc.etc. problem.
I tried both EOF and without EOF.

Most people in this section don't properly test files before saying thanks.

"WOOT I scan da stub.exe on vlrUstoTal.Comz and it say CLeAN and it SaY SucEEssS when I dO My cYbeRgAtez server."

In fact. I'm sure I can find tons of threads in this section of 5 pages of thanks, and analyze the program and find it's UD/FUD backdoored or has some type of problem that is essential to the program.

Like for example.. A crypter I tested earlier, all pages of thanks.. And I test it, and it crypts fine and can get victims but it corrupts the server's startup entry! Worthless! ?

I'm not going to be prejudice though, I'll try this on cybergate and install on some of my spy-net victims and report back.

well for me (after i test again) it comes up with CMD but still works which kinda shows the Victim that something is happening so they'd prob run for their anti-virus load it and try to delete :(. I think your right..

Only have to run it once when not using your crypter.

After Crypting

I think this is be caused by your .Net Framework version. Maybe you should update your .Net Runtime here: http://www.chip.de/downloads/Microsoft-.NET-Framework_18033068.html

I used the Giga Crypter in the last few days, and it works perfect, no problems at all.

Best Regards, Tom

Acid Raindrops - February 12, 2011, 12:10 am

Tested again with Spy-Net. ALL ports on my router opened via DMZ and firewalls off. (even though I don't have to do that with any other crypter/RAT)

Tried injection to explorer.exe.

And crypted with both EOF and without EOF and executed them on my victim's on my existing botnet, NOTHING.

Pretty sure something is wrong with this crypter.

Big compatibility issues perhaps.

Not trying to be a dick, but if it can't successfully crypt the most common used RAT's, I don't know how you expect to sell the private version.

iSynergy - February 12, 2011, 12:12 am

^ What he said, it doesnt' work For my [CG] it makes it FUD alright but useless if the program wont start and slave wont appear in my CG

it's so easy mate... try to google it.. OP, This crypter is suck.. After you crypted and run the file, it will pop up a cmd prompt, and when you check it on the directory where you place it, it has no icon and has a label of vb.net something like that and DID NOT connect to my rat. Don't tell my server is the matter why its not connecting, coz i tried it before i crypted it with your gigo crypter! Do not trust this crypter. Its retarded.

It is fud in the way as it doesn't get detected by antiviruses. When you run a server a big CMD window comes up tho, so its not very stealth at all. And the crypted server has to be run twice to actually work.

Rofl. Pretty positive this shit has a downloader in it. Wtf is rpcss.dll added to startup out of no where and in the wrong directory it should be huh?

It's pretty sad this is a hacking forum and a thread can go 32 pages without someone realizing it's backdoored. Just proves how desperate people are. (including myself)

Since it's hosted on his server, he can change the download whenever he wants too without being suspicious because the first post has been modified.

Oh and immortal, IP address from Ukraine huh? Sounds about right considering OP's bad English grammar.

Should see if that's his real IP address and fuck him up.

Hello people !

I see alot of you guys telling others it's infected .I've got a question for you guys : Did you ran your crypted server on yourself or only ran the crypter ? He may put a downloader in the created server so he would get more slaves .

Thats what I posted in another thread, and I think thats exactly what it is. A lot of people test their RATs on themselves and then use the cure. I know that in the VM where I tested my crypted keylogger it installed an extra file called JavaLoad.exe which had nothing at all to do with my keylogger other than have my files name as its "internal file name".

Another fact to support this theory is that in order for your RAT or keylogger to be installed the file has to be ran twice. Maybe the first time it installs his stuff and then the second time it sees his is already installed and then installs yours?

Acid Raindrops - February 13, 2011, 1:17 pm

No you guys don't understand that when I say it's backdoored, I mean it's backdoored.

Woke up again this morning with my computer monitor shut off (it's usually on 24/7) and went back into msconfig and there is a new infected .dll in startup that wasn't there 5 minutes before I went to bed last night called dnscache.exe pointing to Application Data.

Doesn't matter if you run hijackthis, or malwarebytes either. It must be injected into explorer.exe or winlogon, because nothing looks suspicious and malware bytes doesn't find shit.

I can't remember if I tested it on myself or not, but if I did it doesn't change shit. If a program is backdoored it's backdoored, and I'm not less or more lenient to it in either circumstance.

malwarebytes wont detect his backdoor dude.

he's using some type of php rat with a downloader and keeps refudding and installing onto his victims with different dll names.

im not saying the crypter executable itself is infected. but he's definitely backdooring your server and stealing victims, he's also using his backdoor to monetize via referral redirections when infected people try to do google searches, he can choose who those people are though via his configuration which he can change whenever he wants.

I think this is messed up. If it's infected Staff should remove the link or the thread. Why don't they do something about this. Kids unknowingly will look at the OP and think he's trusted. It's a shame.

DOes the backdoor contain a USB spreader?

By reinstalling OS you mean system recovery, or is that disabled by the backdoor?

I didn't found any proof here that it is infected.

Everyone is just yelling that it's infected before they even analyse or whatever.

If it was confirmed this was a virus, staff removed the link ages ago.

If you don't trust it, don't use it, if you want to use it, analyse it.

Not fud dude 2/16 rate . . .

v0te! - February 26, 2011, 12:05 pm

Pebble - February 26, 2011, 12:06 pm

Any way you could make this UD from nod 32 mate? Thanks alot btw antwashere - February 26, 2011, 12:12 pm

2/16 yes, but still good for a free crypter that has been out for quite some time.

LouLaVie - February 27, 2011, 12:10 pm

Guys do you know you freak the person who made the crypter out. Everytime you guys see it's not FUD anymore you guys are pushing to make it FUD again. The reason why it's not FUD anymore is because some of the stupid noobs in here are scanning at virustotal.com. The crypter isn't updated for more then a week and again.. it's UD. So please stop crying and thank him instead of pushing to make it FUD again. Or just buy his private version.

Thanks GiGa for this great crypter. Make it FUD whenever you have time. Or we just need to buy your private version.

It's a nice GUI, but not the best free crypter out there.

Works except for this, When I crypt (only 10% Detection!(That's Great!)) and run, I get this msvcr80.dll is missing, ETC. Do it requires Microsoft C++ Runtime Libraries Redistributable, That is a drawback for this crypter.

I managed to successfully decrypt the password, however after watching his presentation video on the front page, i still need to know one thing:

I see him grab 3 files: an Exe, the icon he wants (i got that part) then he sets a bind name (is it necessary?) Wich is also another exe. Then he generates the key, and saves the file. I know one of the exes im suposed to get is my built Keylogger. But what is the other one that i'm suposed to get?

Kile Bantick - October 16, 2011, 6:45 pm

It's been Non-Fud for a very, very long time.

I suggest 'Chrome Crypter', it works fantastically.

HidingInSpace - October 18, 2011, 2:04 am

stylo_asif - February 28, 2012, 10:48 pm

Ohh Really Good Crypter BIG VOUCH 4 You MATE

Dreamboy - February 29, 2012, 12:46 am

The password is WAY too easy to decrypt.. You probably ruined your crypter.

Edit: Exactly what I said because 5/9 isn't even UD.

Predator_Crack - February 29, 2012, 7:03 am

Guys basically check the following post to understand what happens and stop saying about UD. Yes it is going to be like that until the owner post news about that.

Post: <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=1045641&pid=17164265#pid17164265>

@Katie

Try to use the search button before posting. There are many other solutions around and there was no need to check a crypter that was last updated in 2011 and no news anymore. Check also Here

poophacker - September 15, 2012, 11:32 am

Please, use Crypto for decryption. Ignore all errors. Do not touch the password field in AER 256

TheUnknown604 - September 17, 2012, 9:07 am

Hello,

Could i get the pass for this. Couldn't decrypt the code. Thanx

congratulations, you just gravediggered a thread also, if you continue scanning crypters on virustotal they will become detectable in some hours..
virustotal distributes samples, use scanner that doesn't distribute.
just use refud.me when scanning crypted viruses
