Thread: I just double repped somebody. Original thread, sorry for the double post.

Un-Named - February 10, 2011, 5:44 am

So it's pretty simple on what just happened.

I gave two reputations to somebody as a double post lol.

I have no Idea how that happened, but I'm guessing it's a glitch.

Proof?

Ethexy - February 10, 2011, 5:44 am

Lol, strange.

Can you delete them?

Yeah. I can. I wish I couldn't. If staff says I have to delete them then I'll delete them.

Otherwise I'm going to keep that there cause the member deserves it lol.

Scott Ov HF - February 10, 2011, 5:49 am haha you might wanna delete 1 before you get done :)

DaL33T - February 10, 2011, 5:49 am

How does that work? Even though he might deserve it, I don't want to have a say in that matter, it would be classed as abusing a glitch which is obviously not good.

I would remove one.

averageuser - February 10, 2011, 5:52 am

Anyone complaining ITT is jelly. He is reporting it, so there is nothing wrong with it. Wait for a staff member.

SIM-82498 - February 10, 2011, 5:56 am

I'd say leave it there until one of the staff take a look at it. I mean you do agree on removing it if requested.

Forex - February 10, 2011, 6:10 am

He's not abusing it as he came and told us. If he wanted to abuse it he could have just kept it to himself.

i think he should be fine since he made it public, he was not tryin 2 hide it and it happen't on accident.

funny glitch

kutmustakurt - February 10, 2011, 6:32 am

Can you replicate it again?

Ninjury - February 10, 2011, 6:39 am

(Feb 10, 2011 07:32 AM)kutmustakurt Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Can you replicate it again?

haha no. It was probably lag glitch. Probably the only reason it would double post.

Maybe you could make yourself lag a little and try it again OP?

I suggest Net Tools for the lag.

SkullTraill - February 10, 2011, 7:02 am

I predict epic net lagging and multirepping spam.

doiwin?

Black Mesa - February 10, 2011, 7:05 am

I tried replicating this by generating a lagspike and pressing the rep button 10 times.

It only updates the rep

If this can be duplicated then you will probably be right.

Slug - February 10, 2011, 7:35 am

Should take a screenshot and put it in the OP so people can reference it for the future when/if Staff remove it.

Cam G - February 10, 2011, 7:43 am

There was a thread made about it, I don't think staff wants you doing it. I forget who said it but one staff (could have been admin) said anyone caught abusing the double rep glitch would be banned and it's not allowed.

A???????? - February 10, 2011, 8:22 am

So probably server lagged out and not all information get from your computer to the server, so server automatically repeat request to fill out those information that did not passed, and boom, you gained two rep instead of one.

That was doing it the old fashion way with the new feature of MyBB 1.6, this is a different story.

Sleep. - February 10, 2011, 8:39 am

I'm still suprised that this happened a possible first in the new MyBB history :L

So because it's being done in a different way makes it allowed now?

No, that part is pretty self explanatory, I am telling you that this is a different situation compared to this one.

Sleep. - February 10, 2011, 10:01 am

Also Cam , it was an accident and he said if staff ask him too it will be removed.

Hot Chocolate - February 10, 2011, 10:07 am

I think on Saged rep, Factor8 +5'd him about 8 times.

Mortalis Piratica - February 10, 2011, 10:15 am

Maybe because of Internet Interruption, that depends on your internet .

Sithis - February 10, 2011, 4:46 pm

Can you do it third time on the same person? Or you just could did it 2 times?

Un-Named - February 12, 2011, 8:23 am

I guess the situation was never really noticed by any staff..

Nostre - February 12, 2011, 8:26 am

Looks like a glitch at the most tbh. Staff will probably remove the one +1 you gave him, and keep the other.

CM Punk - February 12, 2011, 9:17 am

Looks like a glitch, It'll probably be taken care of.

Ag3nt - February 12, 2011, 9:26 am

Did he get banned for this?

iMario - February 12, 2011, 9:26 am

LOL. Funny Glitch. Yeah staff should look at this and fix it.

Voltaire - February 12, 2011, 11:19 am

OP is banned now, was he banned for this?

Methanity - February 12, 2011, 11:27 am

(Feb 12, 2011 12:19 PM)Voltaire Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) OP is banned now, was he banned for this?

I'm not allowed to share information, but i don't think it's related to this.

- Butterfly

Oak - February 12, 2011, 4:14 pm

I don't believe he is banned for this, it had to do with something else. His ban had nothing related to rep.

STUN ZEED - February 12, 2011, 5:53 pm

It must be a glitch, happens sometimes.

yanphuc - February 12, 2011, 7:01 pm

That was pretty wierd but why was he banned?

Oak - February 12, 2011, 7:50 pm

Praefectus - February 12, 2011, 7:51 pm

I think this thread needs to be addressed, posted in by a staff member, and then closed.

I agree and I just saw that the OP of the thread is banned. xD

Sleep. - February 13, 2011, 4:48 pm

The OP is banned due to a comment he made in a thread that was abusive bot not a bannable offence IMO , but none the less I'm surprised the rep is still there.

Un-Named - February 15, 2011, 2:48 pm

So it's pretty obvious that staff have already seen this thread and that they don't care, otherwise (smart thing to do)

I'm going to close this thread and wait for their reply.
