Eh.
That's a difference in a good rapper and a bad one.
All you did was get words and rhyme them.
There was no correlation and no effort into putting the words in setences that made since.

Chase is at the local Chevron just to huff gas,
you suck dick, then get cum in you're mustache,
I heard that you blew some dude for a bus pass,
Then walked home, while you thought about nut-sacks,
Chase likes staring at another mans butt crack,
Jizzing on his dads ass is what you call a come back,
Chase you poke you're tiny dick with a thumb tack,
While you sniff you're mom's cum rag just like a true scum bag,
Don't ever type a rap again you dumb fag,
I bet you've got a man bun and a sun tan,
I bet your Elton John's number one fan,
So what you doing on HF talking about ryhmes, man?
When you got Eminem's stan lyrics printed in your purse fam,
Next to the tampons you got from your school nurse,

I bet you think you're hard as fucc just cause you can write an 8th of a verse,
And act like you're hard-core, when really it's the reverse,
You're not a villain, bitch you're the opposite,
And on the mic, you ain't worth a squirt of piss, or a drop of shit.

Read the first few lines and stopped..
Really not trying to be a dick man or hate..

But you really don't have talent, especially not enough for a ghost writing service.
Now of days everyone just puts words together and don't try to put any lyrical puns or meanings, or you don't get the "Holy fuck that line just hit me" 5 seconds later anymore..
