Thread: [UBER REFERRALS] 3$ EACH ACCEPTING BTC.

dreams - December 30, 2016, 5:32 pm

Hi! I have decided to start selling uber referrals. They will be 3$ each and BTC only.
PM me if you wish to buy.

FAQ
What is an Uber ref?
An Uber referral is when someone else (me) uses a code that you provide to earn you a signup credit. It varies from $10 - $25 off the next ride.

Are Uber refs stackable?
No. However an uber ref does work for ubereats ;).

How many referrals can I get?
I have stocked up my friends account with 20+ referrals, and he can take free short rides anywhere.

Where do I find my Uber ref code?
In the app, look under free rides section and you'll see a code, send that EXACT code to me. Alternatively you can go online and look for the code there.

How much will each ref cost?
Each ref will cost 3$.

What payment methods will you accept?
Only bitcoin for now.

Do you sell ubereats ref?
Yes I do, please contact me for more info because Uber ref is generally the more popular one.

Just clarifying, so you can only have one ref at a time? Is that what non-stackable means?

I'll take a vouch copy if you're still offering them.

Thanks :)

One ref means you can only apply one ref at checkout thus a maximum of $10-$25 off your next ride even if you have more than one referral. You can have multiple refs on one account.
