Soon to be Your turn! I'd hide.

They're pruning all members and starting over, too many inactive, rebellious, etc. members. It will be much harder to get in now. If you read Mendacious' thread you would know...

They made a thread for the gaming group.

It got anally cleaned all members are gone

Everyone was removed from the group in an attempt to raise quality, there is a new recruitment thread available and the Crew will not be used as a title anymore. You must post often from now on.
