Thread: [Ghost hound \[Review\]](#)

Haruhi Suzumiya - February 20, 2011, 2:37 am

Hey guys, this is going to be my first review, I have just completed the series of Ghost hound :)

[img]http://img510.imageshack.us/img510/5977/rating7.gif[/img]

The story was very interesting, there was some flaws about it though, and some slow parts that where a little boring, but the rest of it was very interesting and the ending was great.

_Animation

[img]http://img593.imageshack.us/img593/7104/rating6.gif[/img]

I had to give it a 6 on animation, the characters where well done, and so was the scenery, but on some parts they could have done a whole lot better.

_Characters

[img]http://img263.imageshack.us/img263/9160/rating10.gif[/img]

They did a amazing job on the characters, they showed all of there feelings and thoughts, some parts where third person view and some parts where in first person (Talking about literature here not video games ;D)

__Overall

[img]http://img813.imageshack.us/img813/8973/rating85.gif[/img]

The series was great, I liked it overall. It had a good twist to it and has the part in it where you can't just leave in the middle of the series, I would suggest watching it.

Spoiler (Click to View) I made the userbars or whatever they are called, I know they are crappy, but it got the job done :)

Yeah it was a good show 9.5/10 people haven't even heard of it.

I watched it months ago.

Tasemu - February 20, 2011, 4:12 am

Ill have to add it to my to-watch list. ^^

Ghost hound was very nice, but its a sort of calm Anime. Not a lot of action.

This has to be the worst review I have ever seen.

I think we have something in common, no?

Hoser1358 - February 20, 2011, 3:04 pm

Mm... Yeah your "opinion" was awfully short.

If you're going to recommend it to someone, you should atleast give some more detail. I'll end up watching this either way though :P

I didn't want to give away any of the story.

It's ok Misa something you can do is post a synopsis of the plot from a review site and then explain some of the reasons why you liked the series i.e. good character relationships, background info on characters. Then some things you didn't like or what could have been better. And if anything gives away something just put it in spoilers and put a warning.

Overall it was a bit too short but hey w/e it was your first one so it's ok. If you do another one just improve on some of the things I said and you should be good. Also post a pic of the anime and stuff.

Yea no problem I'll look at the next one and see what you need to improve if anything.

patrickswartz - February 20, 2011, 7:19 pm

I'm watching it currently on Netflix and I can say that it has a very good story line that draws you in. Needed to take it down a notch after darken then black which I might say was quit good but not that much so on the ending.

lolpostninja

Also little known fact, Ghost Hound is the original idea the creator had when he made ghost in the shell.
