8/8 - $10

But in all honesty, I'd sell you items that would buy 8/8 for cheaper than $10 if you wanted to do some merching.
Nonetheless, let me know.

Yeah, I usually go for about $15 but at the moment i'm looking to get rid of stock and all of these items were acquired easily so it's no biggie.
I'm considering proxy selling the cracker I use if you would be interested- let me know.

If you mean proxy selling, I wouldn't mind, but TBH my posting is very sparratic. Because of that, I would be ok with something like a small percentage of profit from people that go through me or something.

I'm sure I could whip up a signature and such pretty easily

Stock still for sale, and growing.

why bother proxy selling? You have a higher rep, higher b-rating, higher rank

Misconception- I am using a program from a developer, I was thinking about proxy selling the program whilst rambling.
