Thought id hop on this band wagon. Seeing as i have his new "Ebook"

Techius: https://hackforums.net/member.php?action=profile&uid=2205828
Sales thread (now closed): https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=5843999
Sales thread (NEW) : https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=5845265

Op has stated numerous times that its a entire new ebook. So i was like meh its pocket change lets get it. Fully aware of all the contriversy about his old ebook being public scripts but he denied it.

Community altert on him

So this is my evidence

My proof of purchase

I want a refund i was MisSold

(Jun 6, 2018 10:16 AM)Techius Wrote: [CITE] I want to know the basis on what you're basing these false allegations on. The book is about making money by focusing on 3 sectors: People. Services. Goods.

If you're going to talk shit, at least your information correct. This is a book with close to 50 pages of great information on how to make money.

Buy the book to see what's actually going on, or I will report your comments for mere sales trashing. There's no repackaging anything. These are new methods, which invertebrate snake-oil salesmen like yourself wouldn't know about, because you're too busy promoting lies rather than the facts like I am.

Unqiue my ass Ewhoring + COPY AND PASTED SCRIPTS

OP MADE A CLAIM

(Jun 6, 2018 10:43 AM)Techius Wrote: [CITE] No I didn't cunt. This is an entirely different book.

You're claiming to know everything about this. How can you know everything about something you HAVEN'T even bought?

Does the method you bought have 43 pages?

No. Because you didn't buy it.
lets explore it a bit Half teh pages are nothign but PHOTOS or blank text

Update: Also he said its unique, he coppied word for word this ebook from his old

20 pages of filler

The second script being entirely copied

Disproving that the "New" script is even the one he meant. Here we see currentmultiplier is in the script in ebook but not in the correct one

Him denying the contents of the book to sell it

His respose after being called out by me

(Jun 8, 2018 06:58 AM)Techius Wrote: [CITE] I said it wasn't about eWhoring. I was correct. I didn't say that eWhoring wasn't in it. I just implied that the book wasn't revolved around eWhoring as a single method. And you know what? That implication was correct, because there are 40 other pages of information in there (close to 50).

You still owe me $24.99 before I consider a refund out of the goodness of my heart.

Yea i agree with that im just pretty sure when it comes to site policy its allowed otherwise alot of members would be banned or closed on forum if that was indeed true.

Techius - June 7, 2018, 3:29 am

It's not copying and pasting from public methods like this book makes it out to be. Everything in the PDF has been written by me and is my own copyright.

He's also stolen a book from me which was given to him by Fade. He owes me money for that book. It's a copyright infringement.

Name me a single method in the book which hasn't been written by me. I haven't copied anything from anyone else. All material in the PDF is specifically written by me.

But I wouldn't expect an invertebrate shill to know the difference. It's clear he's pushing an agenda here to sell his own books and it can be seen with my thread being sales trashed and being gangrepped.

You weren't scammed. You got over 40 pages of information (which you choose to omit) so you can try push an agenda so you can sell your own little ebooks in which you allegedly make $40k. I'd like to see some evidence for that.

So I didn't write any of these methods? I'd like to see evidence refuting that. Show me where anything in the PDF came from the internet.

To clarify, the book was absolutely written by me.

I just compared the data... they are right about the script being public. That's a mistake on my behalf. I corrected it by sending Pronouncer the script. If Fade contacts me, he can get the correct version of the actual script.

What got me confused was that I name everything script. I had a public scripted name script.txt, but the actual script that was made by me was script.js

At this point I honestly think you're trolling. I've never met someone so stupid in my life, it doesn't matter if you wrote everything out yourself. These methods can be found elsewhere on the internet, and you re-created the thread to sell the EXACT same methods with maybe a few small changes which is also against HF rules. I'll expect a refund & apology, along with Pronouncer, otherwise none of these reports are going away

You're the stupid one. You can't keep on a single topic for 5 minutes. You're constantly changing your story, it's really sad.

I didn't recreate the thread to sell the same methods. If I did, I want to see evidence for this. What I'm doing is selling an entirely different book with over 40 pages of information which focus on 3 original pillars: People. Services. Goods.

You won't get that information anywhere else on the internet, except for my book.

Are you replying to yourself with that first sentence? I don't think I've ever met someone on the forums that's as stupid as you are.

Also you should say over 40 blank pages as there's nothing in there but space.

Techius - June 7, 2018, 9:19 am

Another lie. There are thousands of words in there.

Chief - June 7, 2018, 9:22 am

Actually you're wrong. There's only 8 pages with actual test the rest is blank/filler space.
Please stop trying to fight this. You can't correctly defend yourself and you're only making yourself look more and more stupid.

"How Many Pages is 4000 Words?
How many pages does 4000 words equal? Single spaced, 4000 words would produce about 8 pages; double spaced around 16 pages. Of course, depending on how you format your document your page count may vary, but with a typical layout, default page margins and Times New Roman or Arial 12 point font your output should be nearly identical. You can always copy and paste your written work into our online word counter and instantly see character, word, paragraph and page count in real time.

Answer: 4000 words is 8 pages single spaced or 16 pages double spaced"

Techius - June 7, 2018, 9:24 am

There aren't 8 pages of actual words. That makes no sense. What you must have done is take out all spaces, paragraphs, styling and anything. Anything that makes the book comprehensible. In one big long string, with absolutely no grammar, the method would be a few pages long. But that's true for any book that you strip and remove all spaces, paragraphs. But that makes it absolutely unreadable.

So that's another lie from you.

Also Pronouncer has already removed all the space and shorted it to 8 pages with around 4k words. Every single time you're hit with something you try to pull something out your ass justifying it. I think it's ironic that a bunch of self-proclaimed intellectuals are calling me stupid. If you were truly intelligent, then why do you have to be part of a group and have people backing you up? Why can't you defend your propositions by yourself? You're constantly making up allegations, based on absolutely nothing and shoddy imagery -- with which you can't actually making a decisive decision with because it's too unreliable.

People in here have made up their mind on you based on the way you act and the quality of products you push out. This is not a group singling you out. If you would actually take the time to look over the thread and the participants you would see that this is a community looking out for eachother. You just happen to be the subject of this.

That is not evidence. Just because there is more than one person from the same group commenting on the thread, it does not mean that you are being singled out by a group. Groups tend to favor more reputable members for entry sometimes, and it just happens to be that the more reputable members look out for the rest of the community. Its just logic bro.

I don't know if you know, but that's how books are usually laid out. You clearly haven't read any books, so you wouldn't know.

This is Art Sobczak's book, a reputable seller and genius in his field:

Also, delete your gif. It's still leaking. Especially after you were told not to do such a thing. So now you've violated the terms of buying a book, which is grounds for something like a community alert. You also stole a HF product, which is grounds for something like a deal dispute since you've stolen $24.99 and it's also a violation of HF rules.

Thats what the script does. If you look at it carefully, it will sink your investment for a while but then you should see it go up periodically. Bet money Techius doesn't know how it works though.

UNLESS, he made some changes to the actual script coded by someone else and screwed himself. Wouldn't put it past him.

Why is he crying that you stole the ebook when you are clearly posting photos of transaction to buy it? Is he blind? This is ridiculous man. We understand he won't refund you nor will he admit he tried to scam users here. What's the point of dragging this lol.

He will probably get another thread design, prolly change name, make another sale thread with same shitty methods and scam some new users here. Vicious cycle of HF.

1. Kik imo is a bad place to ewhore, guys on chatrooms are way more desperate.
2. xXBubbleGumXx is a super fake name that screams you are a 12 year old pizza face kid.
3. There are probably 100+ other ebooks that say the same thing, most of them free.

Where's evidence that my product, and specifically my product (like you're claiming) is public?

"Insane that monkeys know how to use computers" I'm honestly quite surprised out of all monkeys Techius figures it out. Lol.

Your methods are public. Not your book. Your book is literally copy + paste and thin black pages.

If it's a copy and paste from the internet, I want to see from where.

It's indeed evidence what in your small brain says it's not? I mean you're the worlds smartest person here so I want you to describe to us why it's not "copy and pasted" when you clearly did it and proof on first page. Second off, why is your ebook so blank and have so many pages.

It's blank?

It has so many pages because I jam packed it full of information. That's why it has so many pages.

Well being that hardly any info is shown besides profit and such why not share those accounts? 810k bits doesn't seem like a low amount seems like quite a few bets so for some reason I don't believe you.

You really have nothing to hang your hat on your e-whoring strategies are saturated and copied and your BaB scripts are copied and suck. You are up 6 bucks have a low of down 51 bucks and a high of up 60 bucks. Whoop dee do. Feel really bad for the people that paid for your crappy scripts truly you made 100x more off of them than you did on BaB

Absolutely. When BTC was only $400 (like it was), what's $324 worth when betting? That's the gross number of bits betted. That isn't much actually.

“Your” method with “your” scripts was debunked. Literally, months before your file was created, someone else wrote the scripts and you stole them to make a profit. Technicall , the OP of the scripts could sue you and WIN for profiting off of material that isn’t yours. Copy/pasted material does not equate to YOUR material.
