Of course, as always. But im not promoting the ICO itself, im promoting the way you can claim the tokens for free, and not to buy them.

I know that not questioning your intentions! I'm just making sure people are aware and Airdrops with the Airdrop allocation of Tokens is pretty common and easy to understand.

Yes, ICO's are hell of a risk and also are airdrops.

Just a note for all: NO money is needed, you register, do some stuff(also free, only takes time) they offer for free tokens in reward and thats pretty much it.
