Thread: >2500 downloads and not a penny made!

Middle - February 25, 2011, 7:23 am

So a while ago (October 2010) i released a tool called WiPhire, to be honest i really dislike it now, and i know that i could make it a lot better... However it has been quite a success:

Wide! \(Click to View\)

In addition to those downloads i also have 985 downloads from the media fire hosting that is unique to HF, but i can't be bothered to make a screenie of that :p

But since i am a nice guy i haven't monetized it at all so i have made £0.00... which i think is a good thing :p

If anyone is interested in monetizing my 'work' then drop me a line!

If you did upload to $harecash or something, you've woulda made a killin'...

Thanks for bein so nice!...

You think? I always assumed that you only get like 0.01p per 100 views...

Also i wouldn't have that many downloads if it wash $hitcash and i have no experience 'monetizing'

Could have made a quick $1000, but congrats on being a nice guy and not doing so I guess lol there's not much to help with register on $harecash, upload, give people that download link

Hariz - February 25, 2011, 12:03 pm

You could make a donate button and hope that people want to donate some money for the tool ^^

H??????a X™ - February 25, 2011, 12:21 pm register on $harecash, upload, give people that download linkDo NOT use shareca$h. So many people using it will just drive away traffic. I suggest trying Uploadables.com, this site has a better conversion rate than ShareCa$h. You can make a lot more off this site, and if you get in the top 3, you will get a prize of a 100 dollars.

That's a nice amount of downloads, maybe use $harecash next time!

Good luck with your future projects and programs mate.

Whether you wish to make any cash out of It, ultimately, the choice Is yours.

There are so many methodologies available, so good luck with It.

Rawr! - February 26, 2011, 12:16 am

Congrats! Next time you should upload to $harecash to get some money.

Mystic - February 26, 2011, 2:52 am

WOW that's a nice amount of downloads ^^ too bad you didn't make any money off it

David Bowie - February 26, 2011, 2:57 am

Thats not good man

Make money next time and do not be a nice guy.

Middle - February 26, 2011, 2:59 am

Well i hope that it will give me a reputation of being a nice guy, and earn me some respect, but now i think about it that may have not been the best of ideas XD

Thanks!
