What an idiot.

Quote:Just two days before, a parcel containing a handgun and ammunition he had purchased on the dark web was stopped and examined by Homeland Security Investigations at Newark Airport, New York.

A replica parcel was sent to Davies and following his arrest, police searched his house.

This would've been major in the UK.

They're so rare - we wouldn't be prepared.

All I can say is that man was gonna turn gloucestershire into Glockestershire.

I can't wait to hear again how the usa is so fucked up with school shootings when people fail to see half the damn world is dealing with the mentally ill using guns for mass shootings.
