Thread: Finally hit 100,000 followers!

AuroraProducts - December 7, 2019, 6:28 pm
About 3-4 years ago, I had always hoped and dreamed to have an audience I can influence and create content for.

Back then, I had absolutely zero idea about Instagram. I spent hundreds on guides that claimed to explode your following - Most of which didn't work, and you can pretty much find all that information online for free.

My first year on Instagram was very hectic; I understood nothing. It was painfully difficult and I didn't feel encouraged enough to make content because nobody saw it.

I tried many different accounts and niches.

And now, I can proudly say I own a few accounts which brings my total follower count to over 100,000 followers and I'm growing 1-2k followers per week.

I'm excited for 2020!

Let the sponsored content flow like water, I suppose. Congratulations on your social media victory!

I plan to open a service that enables me to grow other people's accounts for money. ?

So you have multiple accounts totaling 100k followers or 1 of your accounts hit 100k total followers? Either way nice achievement man. The amount of traffic big accounts drive is crazy. 1 million follower accounts have too much fucking traffic

Multiple big accounts ?

Thanks! (:

Awesome work! You should have an easy time setting up a shop to grow others accounts.
I'll keep an eye out for it!

Thanks man. Although, I'm already incredibly busy with all the accounts I have to manage, but maybe sometime in 2020 it might just happen. Having college and work and having to manage multiple accounts consumes a lot of time.

Yeah it is very time consuming. I would probably try to focus on one customer account at a time instead of trying to stack multiple. Should make a little easier to manage that way. Good luck with it my friend!

Thats great mate! Do you monetize them in some way?

That's very true. I've found Buffer to be useful for management, but can get quite expensive. Thanks, again, buddy!

I hope to grow these accounts more and then sell them, and repeat that cycle!

While you have them you can try to monetize them by selling shoutouts and etc.

That's the plan! I hope to open some sort of merch shop, people make insane profits that way.

Meekz - December 22, 2019, 12:59 pm
gonna be honest, lots of people already offer this service and your never gonna get more than $15 a week per account. Not many people will trust you with their info and the whole process is a pain. Also there is programs what'll do the exact same but even better and cheaper. Just my thoughts man, i wouldnt go down that root.

LoremIpsum - December 23, 2019, 3:39 am
Congratulations on the 100k my man! Would you fancy to tell us the niche of your Instagram or is it a secret? No offense regardless of your answer. It's an amazing achievement ?

Elastic - December 23, 2019, 9:59 am
Good job my man.
Keep going and head for a bigger goal.
Keep it up!

langod - December 23, 2019, 10:27 am
Congrats man, that's amazing!

AMGTech - December 23, 2019, 12:03 pm
wow congrats man !!
i know it is hard to get that many real followers , most people just bot them but then wonder why they cant make money from it lol ..

how do you plan to monetize them ? shoutouts ? store ? merch ?
wish you the best of luck ?

you should do some competitions where you say "follow me, like this post and tag 3 friends for a chance to win blah" you may gain lots more followers if the competition is worth it :)

destructionbomb - December 23, 2019, 1:11 pm
Thats awesome dude, are they all legit?

eGod - December 23, 2019, 1:14 pm
Good job buddy.
Find yourself a goal, achieve it and feel the success.
When you first taste success you will be coming for more.

The only thing I use is Buffer. I automate posts and that's it. No fancy things

Are you able to monetize this account ? If yes. How ?

Culture - April 27, 2020, 1:07 am
Congrats mate!

I'm going to hit 100k too!

Currently I have 97k followers :)

Yeah! So one of them is a fashion account, and all the photos owned on there are my own personal ones. So I get to model for any company that wants me to advertise their clothes. ?

(Apr 26, 2020 06:39 PM)shitmaster Wrote: [CITE] Wow congrats buddy! How long did it take you to get that many followers?
Well, I had a few accounts back in 2017 that took FOREVER to grow to even 5,000, as I didn't really understand how Instagram worked; keep in mind that they like to push algorithm updates weekly and that had an impact as well.

I have a few accounts, but my biggest one is an 80,000 follower account, and I've had this one since May last year, so just about a year.

In total, all my accounts add up to 150,000 followers in the span of about a year and a half.

Thanks :D

Keep motivated, and don't let slow progress deter you from being passionate ?

Hey, I own a fashion page, a fan page and a cooking page! So the grand total is 170,000 across all of them, but my biggest one is the cooking one with 100,000

That's awesome man, definitely a huge accomplishment!

Do you only market it on Instagram or do you market on socials like Twitter as well?
