I think there was a post some months ago about the unbanning of pre-2017 accounts.

Hope you've logged in and found amazing stuff!

I'm gonna give this a shot. I have an account from 2006 with 500 hours in rs3 and osrs that;'s been banned a few times for macro. All squashed but the last one 2 years ago.

How did you appeal it?

Theres no option like there used to be.

Thanks. I sent it in. What did you use as the reason? I put "i made a mistake would like to apologize."

It was a macro ban, but i talked to twitter support before and they said my account was banned for "changing hands too many times."

My bro got unbanned after many years and now sold his acc for loads of cash. I think he was quite happy with that

Scrump - January 14, 2020, 2:25 pm

Good effort tbh! Might have to try it on a couple of old accounts, never knew they did this... i definetly haven't learnt my lesson, but they don't know that.

Nate - January 15, 2020, 10:35 am

What did you say to appeal the ban for botting?

Sacred - January 15, 2020, 10:52 am

One of my accs I made got banned for botting when I never had a bot client installed.
The appeal was denied.

Fuck Jagex in their toothless british mouths.

Account was hijacked lol

They definitely are. My 17 year old "main" account got unbanned after getting hacked and botted on. It didn't actually get hacked, I just happened to move countries and decided to bot on my main like a stupid idiot to make some quick cash and sell it. It gave me the option to owe up and apologise, so that's what I clicked. I figured that'd be the only one that would work, and it ended up paying off.

Haven't botted a minute since, started on a new main in the meantime and manually grinded it much further than I could've ever imagined. 10/10 would do again tbh

Lol that’s kinda epic OP. Happy scaping on your OG account. I won’t blame you if you decide to bot again but keep in mind it’ll probably be more difficult to get unbanned a second time. Did you keep your botted stats?

pagerintas - January 19, 2020, 2:05 pm
Well, its very nice o jagex to do so

GrapeTrain - January 19, 2020, 11:02 pm
How long for a response did it take? 8 days so far. I know it says 14 days estimated but isthat accurate?

I just got unbanned today. This is lit. My acc is from 05 or 06 and has over 500 hours in each game. 1800 total in osrs.
Bad news is, I found that before getting banned I had cleaned myself at the sand casino LMAO. Won't be going back there for a long time hopefully.

Wonder if I can get any of my other accounts unbanned LOL.

Update: They've unbanned 2 accounts total so far. And I've submitted for 2-3 more. All macro bans. All reason: I fucked up and I'm sorry. Second one came through within hours of submitting it. Hopefully the other two go through as well.

I just submitted an appeal on an old account. No idea what is inside it.

How long did it take for you to get unbanned?

EDIT: apparently it takes 10 hours

Code Hi [redacted],

Thanks for contacting us to appeal your ban for the account with the login [redacted]@gmail.comand the character name [redacted].

In your appeal you've indicated that the reason for your ban was for macroing.

After a comprehensive review there is sufficient evidence to suggest the offence was applied correctly and normally would not return this account to play.

However, we understand people change and as significant time has passed, in this extremely rare case I believe you may have learned from your previous mistakes so would like to offer you one, final chance to prove that you can follow the Rules of RuneScape. Do take note that should another serious offence be committed, we will not review any future appeals and your account will remain permanently banned.

Before you get back to your RuneScape adventures, do remember that as described in our terms and conditions, the account creator is responsible for the account's behaviour so please follow our advice to help keep your account secure in future.

Please note: This message has been sent from an email address that does not accept incoming mail. If you need further help, check out our online support centre.
Won a whole 168k and 56 mining acc. Lol

Are you getting to write in what you want to say? I was botting too but they are only letting me just click a few tabs and then it sends it in. I will click macroing, then apologize. Then it submits it

OMG! ALL MY ACCOUNTS GOT UNBANNED

No I didn't write anything. I just submitted with their drop down saying I fucked up and I'm sorry and so far 2 have gone through. Still waiting for the other 2. Haven't heard anything accepting or denying it.
