Thread: What's your favourite website to visit?

SIM-2315787 - February 1, 2020, 8:11 am
I tend to spend much time on facebook but I'm not sure if this is my favourite website. There are some groups which I like but nothing more. I also enter youtube and watch videos from various channels. I love videos about UFOs and different mysteries and I also enjoy health , dieting and lifestyle videos. I used to be a big fan of twitter but I'm not quite sure if I like it any more.

Hack Forums. I spend the majority of my online time on this forum.

It’s a close race between HackForums, twitch, and YouTube. That’s my go to’s. I’m starting to use other forums a good bit as well so they are coming up quick Mostly hack forums and YouTube. Lately I have been spending a lot of time in the lounge and in the hack game.

Google of course or duckduckgo, well, I guess I am on HF a lot, really don't have a favorite website.

Geralt - February 1, 2020, 10:03 am
Reddit since I never use it on my phone

Grey - February 1, 2020, 10:12 am
The order would probably be YouTube, Reddit, Twitter, and then probably Hack Forums.

Educational channels on Youtube. Seeker for future technology, AthleanX for fitness and nutrition, and Dr. Rhonda Patrick for Microbiome stuff.

I don't browse too many websites, so I'd say Twitch, MyAnimeList, and YouTube are my most viewed websites.

Lol for real. I just genuinely thoroughly enjoy my time spent on this site, always have and I'm pretty sure it's safe to say I always will.

I often think how long I'll be on this site and the answer never changes; I don't ever not want to be on this site. ?

I'll take breaks too just not that often, and when I do it's not for that long.

I just always somehow find a way to properly incorporate HF into my irl life.
