i think the reddit soccer betting tips have some good soccer tips if that's what you were looking for, obviously all the tips may not be 100% a winner but it definitely is a good one

No clue if he's the best but I would say joca97 https://bitcointalk.org/index.php?action=profile;u=325028;sa=showPosts also has a thread here on hf, sorta expensive but very proven track record.

None really, most 'tipsters' only do so to supplement their betting bankroll/offset losses/have money to bet with. From experience it is better to lose money of your own volition than some other guys who you paid for the tip, the loss stings less then and the win feels better.

Winners lounge is pretty awesome. I quit betting long time ago though, but would definitely recommend it.

His bets are placed at super bad times so unless you're up in the middle of the night, and his bets are bad return for how accurate they are. He's also very rude.
