Anyone remember the day we broke HF by playing scratchcards and making endless amount of bytes? Those were the days

Dotexe - April 13, 2020, 8:29 am
I remember how few people used to exploit and resell the bytes, they got closed anyway but yeah, yikes

Yin Yang - April 13, 2020, 8:30 am
Yeah I remember that, but good thing Staff got onto the exploit

To be honest I don't think they did it knowing they would get closed.
However it was a shit move still, no one is retarded enough to think Omni would allow us to keep those bytes

What did the vulnerability allow users to exploit?

Dorrance - April 13, 2020, 9:12 am
Are you talking how you exploited the game? And everyone else followed.

Whiskey - April 13, 2020, 10:55 am

Is donating the only way to obtain scratch cards?

Ombra - April 15, 2020, 6:43 am

To be honest I think I missed it, I was probably sleeping that day ?

Yeah if it makes you feel any better it was only an hour ago i thought u had to donate for scratch cards.

after blowing 1k bytes donated to me i found out i could've bought one of these bad boys LMAO

Xerotic - April 15, 2020, 8:53 am

I knew it was going to happen before it happened. Before scratchcards were released. I did the math and I was certain within minutes/hours millions of bytes would be generated. Omniscient didn’t share my concern at the time so that’s how scratchcards were launched ?

It was a funny “told ya” moment.

Vitani's Mate - April 16, 2020, 1:13 am

Lmao yeah I made so much bytes and then Omni took all out bytes away.

My avatar is a meme that I made back in day when it happened.

Ash Ketchum - April 16, 2020, 1:16 am

The Broker - April 16, 2020, 1:19 am

Anyone knows how it was exploited?
