At the bar rn, want to try something new/less common. I usually get double jacks/captains and diet (it’s sweeter and I’m getting fat) what is your favorite drinks or suggestions?

Pain Killers aren't bad. 2 ounces Pusser's dark rum, 1 ounce cream of coconut, 4 ounces pineapple juice, 1 ounce orange juice, nutmeg
You could always go for a Long Island Iced Tea.
I prefer cheap vodka straight out the bottle, but that's probably a me thing.

"Jeggu Battery" - sadly tho, I doubt that you have Battery there where ever you are. It's basically a ~4cl Jägermeister mixed with a 330cl can of Battery (there's an age check, just hit "Kyllä. One other thing that I used to like was Passoã mixed with Redbull. Things like that are dangerous and they kinda prevent you from just falling asleep...aka, passing out :D

Everyone have their focus, some people stopped drinking for various reasons... personally I'm limiting my self down really much (one a month) because I realized how much money I spent last year on drinking alone... a student life isn't that luxurious after all.

Of alcohol? I'm not very adventurous so I mostly just drink beer because it's one of the few alcoholic drinks that don't make wanna gag a little. I'll usually have cola and whiskey on an occasion like Christmas. G&T and vodka with juice are good too.

For a non-alcoholic drink I almost always prefer water but occasionally something sweet.

jecoylecoy - March 1, 2021, 2:33 pm

I don't have a favorite drink in terms of liquor.

Verethragna - March 2, 2021, 7:20 am
I rarely drink anymore for health reasons, but when I used to drink heavily I loved vodka and red bulls. They always made me feel great and I liked the contrast between upper and downer. My friends and I would also do something I thought up called "jager circuits" where each of us would get three jager bombs and chug them all. Whoever quit first had to buy a round or everyone food lol.

Now that I'm old and washed up my favorite drinks are water and Gatorade ? Sometimes I just look in the mirror and think "Damn, I used to be a god, and now here we are old and fat lol."

Whiskey sours are really good (to me) also. Hopefully, you're able to find some new drinks you like. Sending positive vibes and have a good day everyone =D

There are, some because of health reasons, some because of religious reasons, and some just judging it I guess.
