Thread: Some Suggestions Improving This Forum!

irrationalByte - March 8, 2011, 4:55 am

Well...Being Very Frank To All..Im Not A Moderator Or An L33T/Ub3r..Im Just An Ordinary Member Of This Site...But I Have A Suggestion :)

The thing I am trying to convey to all the posters , ranking people and group members and as well as regular members goes for all who tries to increase their post rather than contribute to our forum.

What is it that I am trying to say? Do I want you all to stop posting?

No, not at all. I just want you all people to post in a appropriate manner. Even if it is a copy paste , it does NOT matter.

What is wrong with your Threads?

O'well a lot of the things are missing and inappropriate. This is a discussion forum, you may want to edit your Threads and make it more readable.

I have seen many people with 2.5+ Posts per day however their posts are not even worth comparing to 1.

We appreciate you all posting and sharing great tools and releases , Ease-going on our members and helping them out.

At least doing so, customize your Thread a bit more to make it look smart - readable - proficient.

I've seen a great releases of tools here in this forum , It has NO pictures , download links hasn't been specified , Credits are not given and in other words , m355y! <-- Yes , like that.

Give it a bit of time and create a better post is what i was trying to say.

Do NOT run towards your goal of reaching 100 posts and get into Premium Account sections.

If the post styling and information are not available what it is supposed to be, we might increase the post counts required to enter Premium Account's Section.

Who the f*ck are you to tell us about this cr*p?

A Corporeal Administrator, I am here to manage the forum rather than group up the posts and get popular.

If i want to be a popular then i can do a lot of things to get well known and have sh1t loads of reputation.

I work in 3 warez sites, and I've done well there , my Threads were appreciated by Administrators and enhanced my membership to advanced ones.

You may say, I am a secondary Admin in other words.

Any need of help is appreciated as long as you are this forum's member.

So, now what?

* Please try to improve your way of posting Threads.

Make sure to post Virus scans. Here's the basic sample for your Thread. A thing missing in your thread will result in deletion / Trashing.

Title
Information
Steps to implement it in a computer
Screen Shots
Download Links
Reference site (If available)
Virus Scan

You bored to do so?

It is an obvious thing for everybody. If you want I can give you a sample Post code for your Thread.
Copy - Paste > Start Editing > Post > Done ! P.S - This Is A Really Frank And Honest Suggestion...And I Wanted To Post This Is Rules And Suggestions Section But I Couldnt Post it There..:(

Omni doesn't accept suggestions anymore. LOL.

Corrupt. - March 8, 2011, 5:15 am

He wants to become admin is the tl;dr

iceybunneh - March 8, 2011, 5:15 am

Yeah, that would be why you can't post in the suggestions forum: Suggestions are closed.

Nice idea, but I don't think you can force change on the way an entire forum posts. That's like forcing change on the way everyone thinks. With the copy/paste thing too, that just encourages a lot of leached posts and no credit given, IMO. More trouble than its worth :/

Exactly we need to aware the people to do something beside copy and paste too!! ? people dont use the formatting feautres on this forum too! they just copy paste and post..thats it..even while posting tutorials there should be a proper scan report and pics..while some people really do it :)

Sorry. But again, you'd have to change the way people post on this forum...which in a way is kind of how they think because a lot of people don't think about how their post looks or even if what they're saying makes sense. How do you change the way an entire forum thinks?

J4mmy - March 8, 2011, 5:24 am

He meant to you edit a tl;dr version to the OP. Anyways as suggestions are closed this will not happen or if it will, it'll be miracle.
