It's great to see everyone wanting to help out with your situation OP, I haven't seen that kind of humbleness in a while; It's that kind of humble that actually gives you faith that not all people are bad even in times/ situations like these.

Hope everything works out and you get that moron IP banned from the forums.

Seems like a big scam operation, if you ask me. Took a look at the blockchain and the 50 you sent was sent to bc1qkm20e2dch7htczf7n8x23e5lunzj4qs4wprx48 which has sent a total of $13.7k to bc1qs6c665vgp0r90rfx8efhw9fxsfurg7ja36kpjr, with a current balance of $344,786.12. (as of typing this anyways)

Never trust this kinda shit man. Stuff like this has happened to me too, and there's really no getting your funds back. Take it as a lesson learned.
