Thread: Shorts or Pants? What do you prefer

M4A4™ - July 3, 2021, 9:01 am
What is your preference lets say if your at home in a controlled temperature?

I prefer shorts because just way more comfy and I don't like getting hot as fuck lol I struggle in summers because of the heat.

Anyone else like this?

I don't mind both, but if I had to choose one FOREVER it would be pants!

Exactly!! It's just comfy and easy to move in. I only ever wear pants if I'm going out and want to dress up nicely.

Shorts thumbs up...much more easy to move and pretty comfortable wherever you go ;D

Shorts for home or casual summer days. Sweat pants for indoor in winter.
Pants / slacks for the fancier meetings and just jeans for the average day in winter outside.

short during the summer period anyday

Shorts, regardless of the season or weather.

Speaking of being at home, I prefer shorts as well. Mostly I wear pants unless it's hot then sweatpants or just shorts?

Pants, all the way. Much better too wear. Besides, with them no one can tell if you're a serial leg day skipper.

Sweatpants are my favorite things to wear. Summers here now so i'll incorporate shorts a lot more but they will always be too tier. That is as long as you purchase the right type. You'll get comfort, breathability or even warmth and style. My current sweats cost me about $120 and they are my absolute favorite compared to my old ones. Currently have a grey and black pair.

Really for me it depends on the weather but I probably wear shorts more around the house most days.
