Thread: Claim ENS Airdrop Tonight at 7PM

scholarlyidiot - November 8, 2021, 10:10 am
Just a reminder for anyone who holds an ENS domain to claim your ENS Dao Token airdrop tonight.

https://twitter.com/ensdomains/status/1457428261047312400

Airdrop claim site will be open at 7PM.

Damn a simple domain goes from being $10 USD to $250 ETH

I can see this being beneficial for projects and apps that use Ethereum platform and NFT creators but outside of that?

Seems very impractical to "mint" a domain for $250+ happy i registered a few in the past 3 months and even transferred them to diff addresses ?

Easy money, they are going for $39 right now and I got like 150 of em.

I hope HF isn't sleeping on applications built on Ethereum.

ENS coins worth ~$20-40 at any given moment. Was given 70ENS for my domain. Easy 2K bag. Love it

Is this a joke? Applications on ethereum are not usable right now, the fees are ridiculous.

The airdrop was nice as you bagged around 1500-2500/domain(wallet). But the fee for claiming and transferring the token alone costs like 150$.

USD value is very nice, but relatively looking you only get 10x the cost of transfer fee.

You are not eligible for the airdrop

How i can fix this??? can anyone help me ?

And? You still received a free "dividend". You have until May 2022 to claim the drop, so just wait for gas fees to go down.

Seems like you're complaining over free $?

If you have an ETH domain, how do you claim the ENS token drop?
