Thread: What country has the most attractive people?

Facecrook - October 4, 2023, 7:57 am
As the title says, what country in your opinion has the most attractive people?

I find this hard to answer so I'm gonna be broad and just say "pretty much any Slavic country"

DashPHP - October 4, 2023, 8:05 am
Can't really think of one from the top of me head :(

I can see your point but I've spent too much time around bogans that I can't agree with you.

If you want the real bogan experience tho just head to Bali ?

To me I find the Caribbean girl the most attractive.

Japan.

The outliers from the average of these countries skew the data big time.
Japanese girls are cute, I'll give you that.
Also they have some crazy cuisine.

I would say europan in general, but I'm also attracted by Japanese and Korean girls

I'm planning to visit Japan for few weeks for the first trip, and probably 2 months for a second one (for the second I would love to ride from south to north Japanese with a bike, meeting new people, learning from them. I consider them really respectful and I love their culture, I'll maybe met a girl, who knows !)

Buying cars in France is definitely a pain in the ass nowadays, and will be worse in 2024, if it's not ecologic there are so much penalties, some cars like the new Toyota GR86 will go from 30k€ to 90k€ that's crazy, insurances increased as well, gas, and so on ... Besides with the insecurity we are experiencing, people stealing cars, damaging for free because they "have fun", burning during riots, etc ... I'll probably never own a car ?

But you have good taste regarding cars, RX8 is a banger ! Japanese cars are a good reference, especially the old ones

JDM Classics are where it is at! I'd even take an MX5, but only if it's got the cute pop up headlights!

I decided to go German and get a BMW, but in my heart I know I need a NSX ?, my bank balance doesn't agree with me tho.

Hahaha, the pop-up headlights are sexy AF

Yeah the NSX looks very good but I was quite surprised by the price ! Didn't think that was so expensive

Which BMW did you get ? People from France also buy in Germany because it's less expensive, probably something about less taxes but I don't really know.
Can I ask you where are you from by the way ?

I'm from the UK, to buy and MX5 here is crazzzzzzzy cheap! However they just don't have enough power and I'm not one for spending money on after market parts.

I had a 125d M Sport but recently got rid of that and now have the 425d M Sport, I do a lot of motorway driving for my job so petrol wasn't a good option, I plan on getting the M135i next year tho, but the insurance is fucking crazy on that, however it's an absolute monster.

I have to vote for Japan here.

What really attracts me is that they are very polite, and they respect you to a whole different level.
Their culture plays a big role in that...

TV seems to show it off like Sweden always has the prettiest women.
Internet says Russia.
I've known some bad bad bitches from Panama though.

There's attractive people everywhere, it's all subjective. From my own experience, visual preference of those with JP/CN/VN/KR facial features.

I have to disagree with Japan.
Many girls have crooked teeth and ugly noses from all I've seen and heard.

Of course it's a hard question to answer everyone has different attractions. I'd say any country that speaks spanish.
