Thread: INFINITE $8 LOOP (EARN $100 IN 15 MINUTES)

This is a new method that has recently come out. It utilizes an app's referral system to make more accounts for yourself, get $8 from each account, then cash out after a couple hundred $$ to avoid too much suspicion. Then you make a new master account to refer from. Their detection system isn't great, so unlike temu and other referral apps, you can largely get away with referring yourself. I recommend using another mobile device, and doing a full reset between each referral. Also use a VPN address for each account.

Doesn't work, requires ID verification for EVERY account you purchase on or they just dont give the reward, and by ID i mean credit card statement/utility bill

It seems like an outdated method, they also say all fraudulent referral will not get paid.

you think is possible to get that method

Usually they catch on fast about fraud on these types of sites. Isn't worth it imo.
