No clue what you're talking about.

Rush Hour was the shit, great series.

Can you confirm you mean the film? And can you also confirm it's the same film where this guy gives some water to him or some drink, and it makes him thirstier and thirstier? Please let me know!

I haven't seen any of them in over 10 years so I don't remember what you're talking about, just Google it or watch them yourself.

I tried once before a few years back or something... I couldn't find it :-(

I will change my attitude of research though. It's a computer thinking problem that I think the government did to me on purpose.

I literally don't think to do new stuff, other than my desktop clicking routine. Lol
