Correct. just buy the subscription and after you're logged into office.com, download your executable for your OS and that's it.

MS Office has had .dmgs or mac distributions since Office 2010.
I think you'll be okay, just don't download the windows version from the dropdown menu...

I'm a little surprised you've been on this forum for a decade and still know as much as a grandpa. But I guess, you use a Mac, so birds of a feather...
