Thread: Looking for a reviewer!

Footieskillz - April 1, 2011, 4:21 pm

I am looking for a trusted reviewer.
Don't post if you have under 200 posts.

My "program" is not done, I will tell you what to test etc when I talk to you. Anyways it's not much to review just a "quick" test.

I have been working on it for two days still not done, I have some coding left and some designing.

Post here if you are interested.

i don't think anyone would be intrested in reviewing some random app, with no info provided. am i right?

Exactly as above. I don't mind reviewing work. Depending on what it is.

Interested. Although, if it's something that has been posted before or you followed a tutorial almost none of the HQ people wont review it.

I suggest Getting a Official Reviewer To Review it, As thats the time its legit. A good One is Prosperity

I am interested in doing this for you.

Hang on. Is it a review of the code or the Actual file?

Cody8295 - April 1, 2011, 4:57 pm

I can review it for you, so long as it's not maleware.

Footieskillz - April 1, 2011, 11:46 pm

Please do not get angry.

It's a quick review of the design.
