I know mate, people are very weird.. but it happens.... You will get used to it ... Thats how the world works i guess..

Sure it's a - was unnecessary but why do you use it anyways? It gives you a fraction of a cent per click. It really isn't worth it.

Moaning about rep will only get you more negs.

After 1000 clicks you have maybe $1. It's just annoying for him to sit there and stare at an ad for 5 seconds just to give you $0.001.

If you made a file hosting site why not get real advertisements.

[H]ell - April 6, 2011, 10:11 am

I don't want anyone to send me a adf.ly link in my inbox.

Its a instant -rep.

Adf.ly is the most annoying shit, and the lowest paying thing in the world.

If you want money, go mow a lawn or something.

The - rep also counts for the most retarded sig ever.
