wanting to recieve thanks for leeching somebody's work?..fail if they want you to pm them for it tit for a reason ..

also judging by your rep history you have a record leeching things without giving proper credit .. dont be suprised if its backdoored ..

* First of all Xycon.. work on your spelling and well , The virus scan is provided So its clear theres no virus , And i have never released something without giving proper.. someone thought they should receive credit so they negative repped me

*Why didnt i give him credit? Because he couldn't prove he had anything to do with the project

*And there is no reason you should have to pm someone for this

And even the person i got it from wasn't the original owne

He wanted others to pm him so he could have a big thread

*But this is Clean, You can even sandbox it and it will work perfect

(However) It doesn't work with some emails
