Okay here is a contest with a bit of a twist. My forums has just reached 100 members and so it gave me an idea to create challenge 120.

What happens is the member that is 150th member to register on my site will get $120.

Yes thats right, if you are registrar 120 you win $120!

Rules:

- Post here
- Sign up at: <http://goo.gl/Ow33c>
- Create an introductory thread here: <http://goo.gl/Oxe6c>
- Create 2 threads and 10 high quality posts

Once you have done this you will be entered into the competition.

I realise that people won't sign up until the number gets near 120, however people need to get some balls and have a go anyway, use your brain there are ways to get more than one entry.

Also upon entry to get the ball rolling you will recieve a free gift, send me a PM on here with your user name and i will send you your free gift.

Thats it, simple.

I have the right to kick anyone from the contest at any time, i will be performing checks to ensure that people do not create multiple accounts. By joining you agree to this.
